The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Acknowledgements

The family of Phyllis Holland wishes to express our heartfelt gratitude for every act of kindness, love, and support shown during this time of bereavement. Your prayers, visits, calls, messages, flowers, food, and comforting words have strengthened us more than words can fully express.

We are deeply thankful for the many ways Phyllis's life touched others, and for the love you have shown in honoring her memory.

May God richly bless each of you for your thoughtfulness, and may the love Phyllis shared continue to live on through all who were blessed to know her.

CHERISHED MEMORIES- FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Obituary

Phyllis Lenoris Adams Holland, was born on September 14, 1955 to the late Etta M. Fisher and Harold A. Adams. She was called to eternal glory on May 26, 2026.

Phyllis was born and raised in Durham, NC and was the oldest of four girls. She became a life long member of United House of Prayer For All People at an early age. Phyllis attended Durham Public Schools and was a 1973 graduate of Durham High School and later received an Associates Degree in Nursing from Rowan County Community College in Salisbury, NC. She worked as a Registered Nurse in Long Term Care, Duke Hospital and the VA Hospital for many years.

Phyllis was an avid reader and enjoyed Romance and Mystery Novels. Her favorite things to do to past time was watching television shows like Murder She Wrote and Matlock and eating, loved to eat an array of different foods. She loved to dance, often showing off her two step at the Elk's Lodge and Coleman's Lounge. Traveling was also one of her favorite things to do. Her adventerous spirit would have her reside in Ft Lauderdale, FL, Columbia, SC, Brooklyn, NY and California. She was a Die Hard Tarheels Fan.

Above all, she will be remembered for her generous and kind spirit and the love she showed to her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Etta M. Fisher and Harold A. Adams, her bonus dad, Alvin B. Fisher, sisters, Shelia Murdock, and Sarita Crisp. Niece, Jametria Chablee Rogers. Nephew, Victor Murdock and Stepson, Celledric Conrad.

Phyllis leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Charles E. Holland, daughters, Natessia Holland - Dozier(Shawn) and Jakita Wilson. Grandchildren, Kiniya, Kinnessia and Kinshasa Hibbitt. Great Granddaughter, Ke'Mani Hibbitt. Stepchildren, Natasha and Michael Burch. Sister, Barbara Adams. Sisters in Law, Geraldine Upchurch Evans and Charlyn Holland - Henry, brother in law, Oscar "Tommy" Holland. Nieces, Valisha Adams, Nashaka Adams, Barbara Rogers, and Chantina Dawkins and a host of loving relatives and friends.
