

IN LOVING MEMORY

Briahna Victoria McCain

Sunrise: April 27, 2009

Sunset: Novemeber 27, 2025

Service: December 20, 2025 | 11AM

Riverdale Baptist Church

1273 Haw River Hopedale Road | Burlington, NC 27217

Briahna

Today, we gather with heavy hearts and united love to celebrate the life of Briahna Victoria McCain. Though her time with us was far too short, her impact was deep, real, and unforgettable. Briahna was the kind of soul who brought light into every space she entered. Her smile carried warmth, her laughter filled rooms, and her presence made people feel seen and valued.

She lived boldly, loved fiercely, and connected effortlessly. To her family, she was precious. To her friends, she was irreplaceable. To her niece and nephew, she was everything. Briahna was deeply loved, fiercely protected, and endlessly cherished, and that love did not end when she took her rest.

Today is not only a moment of sorrow, but a testimony of how much one life can mean. We grieve her absence, but we honor her legacy. We feel the pain of her departure, yet we celebrate the joy she gave. Briahna will be missed beyond words, remembered beyond time, and loved beyond this life.

Interment

Oakwood Cemetery
512 Steele St, High Point, NC 27262

Acknowledgements

The family of Briahna Victoria McCain would like to express their sincere gratitude for the prayers, kind words, calls, visits, and every expression of love shown during this difficult time. Your support has been a source of comfort and strength and has reminded us how deeply Briahna was loved.

We are especially thankful for those who have stood with us, uplifted us, and shared in celebrating her life. May God bless each of you for your compassion, presence, and continued prayers as we carry Briahna's memory in our hearts forever.

Her Light Still Lingers

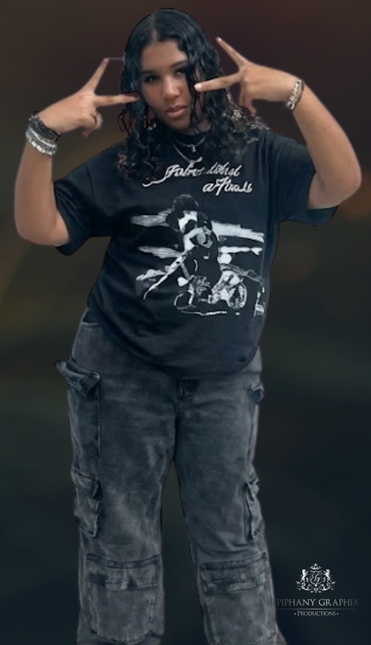

Briahna, your light still lingers here,
In quiet rooms and laughter's echo.
In every memory, every tear,
Your love remains, steady and warm.

You walked this life with grace and joy,
A gentle strength, a caring heart.
You loved deeply, without condition,
And left your mark on every soul you touched.

Though your days were fewer than we wished,
Your life was full, your presence true.
You gave us love, you gave us laughter,
And that will always carry us through.

Rest now, sweet Briahna, in perfect peace,
Held safely in God's eternal care.
Your story lives, your love endures,
Until the day we meet you there.

Services Entrusted to
K N Jones Memorial Care, LLC
112 S. Graham Street
Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27516

Order of Service

Processional

Musical Selection

Scripture

Old Testament Psalm 23

New Testament John 14: 1-6

Prayer of Comfort

Mr. Andrew Routh

Acknowledgements and Obituary

(Please Read Silently)

Remarks

(Please Limit to 3 minutes)

Eulogy

Ms. Kathy Graves

Morticians Brief

Recessional

Obituary

BRIAHNA VICTORIA McCAIN, was born on April 27, 2009, in Durham, North Carolina, to Crystal Boycher and Dante McCain. She entered eternal rest on Thursday, November 27, 2025, in Burlington, North Carolina.

Briahna was a junior honor roll student at Southeast Guilford High School. She was ambitious and forward thinking, with dreams of enrolling in veterinary and nail school as she prepared for her future. She carried herself with confidence and purpose beyond her years.

Known as the life of the party, Briahna had a magnetic spirit. Wherever she went, she made friends easily and brought joy into every room. She was smart, outgoing, and full of laughter, always finding a way to enjoy life and those around her. Her weekends were often spent with friends and, most especially, with her niece and nephew, whom she loved deeply. They were truly her world.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving parents, Crystal Boycher and Dante McCain; one brother, Carlos Boycher; sisters, Danielle Boycher and Nyshalyn McCain; Khalia Madlock Graves, a cousin sister of the home; John Dixon, cousin of the home; her beloved niece, Nova Boycher; nephew, NyViere Boycher; grandfather, Andy Thompson; grandmother, Kathy Graves; a special aunt, Tiffany McCain; and two special best friends, Sariyah Giles of Durham, her friend since fifth grade, and Kary'ana Harrison of Greensboro, her friend since ninth grade. She also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and many close friends who loved her dearly.

Briahna was a quiet yet deeply loved, sweet, caring, and beautiful young lady. She lived a life full of laughter and honor and departed this life with dignity, surrounded by those who loved her most. Though our hearts are heavy, we rejoice in knowing that she is now resting safely in the arms of her Heavenly Father.

Cherished Memories

Forever In Our Hearts

